

Village of Ellsworth

Vision Statement

The Village of Ellsworth, the hub of Pierce County, is dedicated to developing a comprehensive plan that facilitates the preservation of the historical, cultural, economic, and environmental features that make Ellsworth a special place, protects both community and private property rights, provides a basis for making informed decisions on growth, achieves predictability and produces positive economic growth.